Pocklington and District Local History Group - WOLDGATE SCHOOL HISTORY

We will be trying to fit the history of Woldgate into the context of the development of education nationally since 1945 and locally (the East Riding). We are hoping that the personal accounts and memories that you provide will illustrate these national and county developments on a very local scale.

My role at Woldgate

Please enter your highlights of your time at Woldgate

1. Mr Vaughan removing his false teeth as I was halfway through a house speaking competition recital
2. Treking over the moors in a short skirt and platform shoes (because we were not allowed to wear trousers) looking for Wuthering Heights. When we got there we found a sign saying it wasn't really Wuthering Heights but a house which looked a bit like it.
3. On a Duke of Edinburgh expedition Mr East demonstrating a "bog-hop" and falling flat on his face in the bog.
